

Billy R. Spoone

June 1, 1957 - February 7, 2021

BILLY R. SPOONE, age 63, went to be with his Lord and Savior on February 7, 2021. He was a loving husband and father. He was devoted to his family and his home church, Deep Springs Baptist Church where he served as a deacon for many years. He took great pride in his work as an electrician and always strived to do his best with any job. No matter the job, he always did his best to be of good service to the Lord and shared his faith with everyone he met.

Billy is survived by his wife of 40 years, Frances Spoone; son, AJ Spoone, whom he was very proud of; sister, Janice (Jerry) Slagle; aunts, uncle, nieces, nephews, cousins and so many other family members and friends that he loved dearly.

He is preceded in death by his precious mother, Doris Spoone; grandparents, Jake and Rozella Miller and so many family members and friends that he missed so much. We can only imagine what a celebration it was for him when he saw them waiting to welcome him to his final home. A visitation will take place on Wednesday, February 10, 2021 from 3:00pm until 7:00pm at Deep Springs Baptist Church in Dandridge, TN with a funeral service to follow at 7:00pm with Rev. Danny Matthews, Rev. Chad Chambers and Rev. Brock Webster officiating. The interment will take place on Thursday, February 11, 2021 at 11:00am at F. M. Johnson Cemetery/Deep Springs Cemetery. Pallbearers include his son, AJ Spoone, J. Ray Walker, David Hubbard, John French, David Cate and Jerry Slagle. Honorary pallbearers include Wayne McKinney, Tom King and Ralph Elder.

“ Oh goodness y'all, so many thoughts and feelings. One of the few who welcomed me as the new guy at Maury. Along with Eddie, Gary, Jimmy. There were more but we were tight. We always knew there would be a day when there was a first and then one. Incredibly sad to have him gone. But his soul in Heaven and his body one day to join. Loved his laugh, his work ethic, and more. He worked steadily and hard at anything he done. He could figure it out. Men like him will be sorely missed just because of his knowledge and skills he learned from I think his mentor in a way. Uncle Ralph. From a little dwelling to the home for his mom then finally the home he built for Frances and a new arrival. He was crazy about you Frances from day one. AJ, he was in love with you from your earliest beginnings. I remember when Billy was saved. He was in a Christmas play at church, he learned every word and played his part perfectly and encouraged others along as I remember. He was so moved and convicted he knew Who his Savior was. He stuck to it too with strong faith. He once told me that he had left a driving job because he had witnessed to everyone he could on his route and co-workers. Now that's dedication! But that was Bill. I called him Bill Spooone for some reason and it sorta stuck. We worked at hay, tobacco, and other things. Always willing to help. Always. I remember when y'all were dating, Frances he was so proud y'all had the same cars. He was trying once to get tire off your car and even after all the lugs were off it didn't want to, it was stuck period. He drove your car in circles to try to get it off. Nope! So he finally took a torch and heated it some at the hub. Success. He figured it out! I just am so proud to have him as a friend. Loyal and firm. I wasn't the best example of a Christian, still not but Bill was. He believed with all he had he lived it the best he could. He preached it the best he could. My eyes are moist with what I would say is happy grief in my thoughts and feelings of him and the whole family. Such great people. I let Bill down at times I know but he never said a word. Frances, when we hiked he took a stone from the ground and put in his pocket. After a while I asked him about it. He said it represented you. He had it close, could touch and feel it and made him happy. He loved you so much. I can't write enough to put my thoughts here. But I'll say Bill Spooone was a man, a friend, husband, father, brother, son and a faithful saved soul. I don't always get my words right spoken and written but that last sentence is correct as it can be. I'll end with he loved and shared the Lord! Blessings! Just know I love you guys.
